

Review Test Submission: Q6 - Spring 2021 (106)

User	Mualla Argin
Course	21 SPRING HIST 106 509,809: HISTORY OF THE U S
Test	Q6 - Spring 2021 (106)
Started	2/25/21 11:19 AM
Submitted	2/25/21 11:26 AM
Due Date	3/2/21 12:00 PM
Status	Completed
Attempt Score	100 out of 100 points
Time Elapsed	7 minutes out of 30 minutes
Results Displayed	All Answers, Submitted Answers, Correct Answers, Incorrectly Answered Questions

Question 1

10 out of 10 points

Which of the following is TRUE?

Selected Answer:

☒ e. All of the above are TRUE.

Answers:

a.

Among the legacies of the New Deal were a minimum level of well-being and increased regulatory function of government.

b.

Two factors that contributed to U.S. isolationism in the pre-WW II period were concern over the great depression and lingering memories of WW I.

c.

When President Franklin Delano Roosevelt issued Executive Order 8802, it prohibited racial discrimination in hiring within defense industries.

d.

Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Congresswoman Jeanette Rankin (R-MT) was the only member of congress who refused to endorse the declaration of war against Japan.

☒ e. All of the above are TRUE.

Question 2

10 out of 10 points

Kristallnacht was Selected

☒ c.

Answer:

a night of violence, arson, and looting directed against German-Jewish shops, offices, and synagogues.

Answers:

a.

a movement of German submarines into the English Channel under cover of darkness.

b.

an exhibit to demonstrate the superiority of Germany's finest tableware and crystal glassware.

☒ c.

a night of violence, arson, and looting directed against German-Jewish shops, offices, and synagogues.

d.

an evening of music and dancing to celebrate the Nazi Party's election victory.

Question 3

10 out of 10 points

Match the woman most closely associated with the description. Use a name ONLY ONCE.

Question

Correct
Match

Selected
Match

African American novelist and essayist whose work gained fame during the cultural period referred to the Harlem Renaissance.

☒ A.
Zora
Neale
Hurston

☒ A.
Zora
Neale
Hurston

British singer – called the “Forces Sweetheart” – who sang “There’ll Be Bluebirds over the White Cliffs of Dover,” a song inspired by the 1940-1941 London Blitz.

☒ D.
Vera Lynn

☒ D.
Vera Lynn

educator, founder of the National Council of Negro Women, and prominent civil rights leader who advised FDR on race issues.

☒ C.
Mary
McLeod
Bethune

☒ C.
Mary
McLeod
Bethune

noted African American singer whose concert in Constitutional Hall was cancelled because the organization that owned the hall objected to a racially integrated audience.

☒ B.
Marion
Anderson

☒ B.
Marion
Anderson

first woman to hold a cabinet position (Secretary of Labor) who earlier had gained fame for proposing safety legislation in the wake of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire.

☒ E.
Frances
Perkins

☒ E.
Frances
Perkins

All Answer Choices

- A. Zora Neale Hurston
- B. Marion Anderson
- C. Mary McLeod Bethune
- D. Vera Lynn
- E. Frances Perkins

Question 4

10 out of 10 points

According to the film Cinderella Man, which statements are TRUE?

- I. Early in the film, when Joe Gould and Jim Braddock were in the car following the fight at Madison Square Garden, Joe reminded Jim that he'd never been knocked out.
- II. The Braddocks' son Jay got into trouble for stealing a salami from the local butcher shop.
- III. Mae Braddock dried Jim's socks by placing them in their apartment's window and letting the sunshine dry them.
- IV. When Jim Braddock and Mike Wilson were talking over a beer, Mike said workers needed to organize and support a union.
- V. When Mae Braddock and daughter Rosie returned to the Braddocks' apartment, they saw a strange man outside. He was a collection agent requesting payment for the milkman's past-due bill.
- VI. Braddock performed badly in his Mount Vernon fight because he dislocated his knee as he attempted to elude his opponent's punches.
- VII. In the scene where Jim Wilson was interred, he, like many other destitute decedents in the Great Depression, was buried in a plain, wooden casket in a common grave.
- VIII. When Mae Braddock was imitating an announcer, she referred to Jim as the "Bulldog of Bergen."
- IX. When Jim Braddock came home one day, Mae Braddock said that Sara Wilson was there. Sara told Jim that her husband Mike had moved into one of the Hooverilles in Central Park.
- X. During the kids' birthday party at the church, Mike and Sara Wilson got into an argument across the street because Mike had been drinking.

Selected Answer: ☒ i. Only I, II, IV, VII, VIII, IX, X are TRUE.

- Answers:
- a. Only I, III, V, VI, VII, VIII, X are TRUE.
 - b. Only I, III, IV, VII, VIII, IX are TRUE.
 - c. Only I, IV, VI, VII, VIII, X are TRUE.

- d. Only II, III, V, VI, VII, VIII, X are TRUE.
- e. Only II, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX are TRUE.
- f. Only III, IV, VI, VII, VIII, IX are TRUE.
- g. Only III, V, VII, VIII, X are TRUE.
- h. Only III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X are TRUE.
- ☒ i. Only I, II, IV, VII, VIII, IX, X are TRUE.
- j. Only II, V, VI, VII, VIII, X are TRUE.

Question 5

10 out of 10 points

According to the film Cinderella Man, which statements are FALSE?

- I. Before the Mount Vernon fight, Braddock became annoyed when Joe Gould referred to his opponent as a "bum."
- II. When Jim Braddock and the other men showed up for work on the docks, Jake the foreman was able to offer a day's work to only a few men and most were left empty-handed.
- III. When Jim Braddock came home one day, Mae Braddock said that Sara Wilson was there. Sara told Jim that her husband Mike had moved to California where there were plenty of jobs.
- IV. When Braddock perform badly in his Mount Vernon fight, the ring-announcer said that the referee called the fight and the bout was "no contest."
- V. Although Jim Braddock was a proud man, when the electricity had been turned off and his kids were sick, Jim finally applied for state welfare funds and later asked his boxing acquaintances to help him out with the additional money he needed.
- VI. When Mae Braddock and daughter Rosie returned to the Braddocks' apartment, they saw a strange man outside. He was verifying that the Braddocks were eligible to receive food stamps.
- VII. After Braddock's bad performance in Mount Vernon, Mr. Johnston told Joe Gould that Braddock's boxing license would be revoked.
- VIII. After Braddock broke his hand in Mount Vernon, he used black shoe polish to conceal the plaster cast so he'd still have a chance for a day's work when he shaped up on the docks.
- IX. In 1934, after Braddock lost his boxing license, Joe Gould was able to get him one more fight on short notice. Jim's opponent would be the #2 heavyweight contender, John "Corn" Griffin.
- X. When Jim Braddock and Mike Wilson were talking over a beer, Mike was confident in Franklin Delano Roosevelt's ability to solve the depression and that one of FDR's programs would help Mike get his home back.

Selected Answer: ☒ f. Only III, VI, X are FALSE.

Answers:

- a. Only I, IV, IX are FALSE.
- b. Only I, V, X are FALSE.
- c. Only I, VI, X are FALSE.
- d. Only II, III, IX are FALSE.
- e. Only II, V, X are FALSE.
- ☒ f. Only III, VI, X are FALSE.
- g. Only III, VII, VIII are FALSE.
- h. Only IV, VI, IX are FALSE.

Question 6

10 out of 10 points

Match the New Deal program/act most closely associated to its description. Use each ONLY ONCE.

Question	Correct Match	Selected Match
created construction jobs by building dams to generate electricity in unserved rural areas while establishing outdoor recreational areas	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> D. Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> D. Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) directly hired employees to construct parks and bridges, and it commissioned the collection of the American Slave Narratives	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> B. Works Progress Administration (WPA)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> B. Works Progress Administration (WPA) provided for financial aid for dependent children, financial assistance for the blind and disabled, unemployment insurance, and a pension fund for retirees	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> A. Social Security Act (1935)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> A. Social Security Act (1935) stationed unemployed young men in camps where they worked on rural environmental projects	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> C. Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> C. Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)

All Answer Choices

- A. Social Security Act (1935)
- B. Works Progress Administration (WPA)
- C. Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)
- D. Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA)

Question 7

10 out of 10 points

Which statement is FALSE?

Selected ☒ c.

Answer: In 1940, British, French, and Belgian forces scored their first major victory over Germany at Dunkirk.

Answers: a.

In June 1940, Germany required the French to sign the terms of surrender in the railway car where Germany had surrendered in 1918.

b.

In 1941, Japan's broader strategy was to create the Greater East Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere.

☒ c.

In 1940, British, French, and Belgian forces scored their first major victory over Germany at Dunkirk.

d.

In 1940, Germany launched the Blitzkrieg (Lightning War) – an armored, mechanized strike supported by artillery and attack aircraft – against Belgium, Netherlands, and France.Question 8

10 out of 10 points

According to the film Cinderella Man, which statements are FALSE?

- I. When Mae Braddock went to Joe Gould's apartment to confront him, she saw that Joe and his wife had beautiful, expensive furniture and imported rugs. Mae concluded that Joe had not been affected by the depression.
- II. During the kids' birthday party at the church, Father Rorick mentioned to Jim that he hadn't seen him at Church lately. Jim told him that church was for women and he'd rather spend his time having a few beers with his chums.
- III. When Jim went outside to pick up the milk, he returned empty-handed because the milkman had left a "Past Due" notice meaning that the Braddocks would not get any more milk until their bill was paid.
- IV. When Mae Braddock and daughter Rosie returned to the Braddocks' apartment, they saw a strange man outside. He was an employee of the electrical utility turning off the Braddocks' electricity.
- V. When Jim Braddock came home one day, Mae Braddock said that Sara Wilson was there. Sara told Jim that her husband Mike had quit his job on the docks and taken up boxing because the money was good.
- VI. Just before the John "Corn" Griffin fight, Sporty Lewis showed up at the door of the locker room and spoke with Braddock. Sporty was a sportswriter who didn't expect Braddock to win the bout.

- VII. After Braddock made his son Jay return the salami he stole from the butcher, Braddock promised the boy he would never send him away to live with anyone else.
- VIII. When Braddock started making money from boxing again, he went to New Jersey's office or Emergency Relief Administration and returned the money he received when he was desperate.
- IX. After Braddock knocked out John "Corn" Griffin, Braddock was defeated at the hands of John Henry Lewis and Art Lasky.
- X. Events depicted in this film occurred principally in the 1930s.

Selected Answer: ☒ e. Only I, II, V, IX are FALSE.

- Answers:
- a. Only I, II, VI, X are FALSE.
 - b. Only I, III, V, IX are FALSE.
 - c. Only I, IV, VI, IX are FALSE.
 - d. Only II, IV, V, IX are FALSE.
 - ☒ e. Only I, II, V, IX are FALSE.
 - f. Only III, V, IX, X are FALSE.
 - g. Only II, V, VI, VIII are FALSE.
 - h. Only IV, VI, VIII, IX are FALSE.
 - i. Only II, VIII, IX, X are FALSE.
 - j. Only I, V, VII, IX are FALSE.

Question 9

10 out of 10 points

Which event precipitated the decision of England and France to declare war on Germany?

Selected Answer: ☒ d. Germany attacked Poland (1939)

- Answers:
- a. Japan attacked Pearl Harbor (1941)
 - b. France surrendered to Germany (1940)
 - c. Germany attacked the USSR (1941)
 - ☒ d. Germany attacked Poland (1939)

Question 10

10 out of 10 points

Which of the following statements is FALSE?

Selected ☒ d.

Answer: President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was successful in getting an anti-lynching bill passed thanks to the support of Southern senators and congressmen.

Answers: a.
FDR agreed with the economic principles espoused by John Maynard Keynes.

b.
The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation guaranteed savers' deposits in banks up to $2,500.

c.
A purpose of the Kellogg-Briand Pact (1928) was to renounced war as an instrument of national policy.

☒ d.
President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was successful in getting an anti-lynching bill passed thanks to the support of Southern senators and congressmen.

e.
The 1934-1936 Nye Committee, under the direction of Sen. Gerald Nye (R – ND), investigated relationships between financial firms and munitions manufacturers in World War I.

Tuesday, May 11, 2021 11:45:33 AM CDT

← OK